I Thessalonians 4:13-18  But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. It seems that the Thessalonian brethren, expecting the speedy coming of the Lord, mourned over some of their number who had died, counting it a great loss that they did not live to meet Jesus. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

If we believe, the Gospel. If we believe in the death, burial and resurrection of Christ, we must believe also that all who sleep in him will be raised with him. 15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

He now explains how it will be at the Lord’s coming. We who are on the earth when the Lord comes, will not precede those who died in the Lord to meet him. 16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain (all the saints i.e. the church) shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. This is that glorious meeting with the Lord that shall never end.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words. Cheer each other with these assurances. Tell the mourning ones that when they are called to meet the Lord they will find their own sleeping ones in the glorious company.
